

APPENDIX 4

Public Advertisement in the Ilkley Gazette
for Part Two that appeared on 6 and 13 September 2007

The Wharfedale Trail Forum Part Two - Public Consultation on the proposed Wharfedale Trail

A public consultation for the people of Ilkley will take place between 15 September and 20 October to provide information about a proposal to create a walking, cycling, and horseriding route between Ilkley and Bolton Abbey through Addingham, known as 'The Wharfedale Trail', and to invite written responses.

Information about the proposal and response forms will be available at the following venues:

Saturday, 15 September from 10.00am to 4.00pm - Clarke Foley Centre, Cunliffe Road, Ilkley.

Wednesday, 19 September from 6.00pm to 9.00pm - All Saints Church - Church House, Church Street, Ilkley.

Thursday, 20 September from 6.00pm to 9.00pm - St. John's Church Hall, Bolling Road, Ben Rhydding.

An unmanned exhibition can be viewed in the foyer of Ilkley Library from Friday, 21 September to Saturday 20 October, and response forms will be available within the library.